SUGAR GROWERS OF HAWAII WILL CUT 1922 CROP

Islands Suffering Most Acute Shortage of Labor of Their History.

HONOLULU, T. H., Nov. 19.—With Congressional action on the Hawaiian emergency labor bill indefinitely delayed, sugar planters throughout the territory are planning to cut their cane acreage for 1922 by 20 to 25 per cent and to undertake more intensive cultivation with what labor is available.

Officials of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association state that this action will mean a probable reduction in Hawaii's output of sugar for 1922 of approximately 100,000 tons, which under revised tariff laws is expected to have a considerable effect on the price of sugar throughout the country.

Hawaii is at present suffering the most acute labor shortage of its history, practically all plantations in the territory being short 20 to 25 per cent of the labor needed to plant, cultivate and harvest the cane crop. The cause of this shortage is ascribed partially to desertion of plantation life by laborers, who seek to better themselves in the towns and cities, and partially to an attempt on the part of the Japanese leaders to force the holders of sugar lands to abandon them, in which case Japanese laborers and farmers could step in and obtain the foothold which they are thought by some to be seeking in Hawaii. Relief through the importation of labor has been asked of Congress.

THIRTY WOMEN SEEK RICHES OF DEAD BIGAMIST

Administrator of Estate Swamped With Letters Following Deathbed Confession.

By International News Service.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 19.—One hundred deserted women are claiming to be the widows of K. L. Carson, he of seven aliases, who died in the Montrose Sanatorium, in Weaverville. J. S. Styles, attorney for Dr. J. M. Crawford, who was appointed administrator for the deceased, needs another clerk to attend to his mail, since news of the demise of the "man of mystery" became public property. Women from Maine to California have written their claims to widowhood through Carson's death. Every mail brings in more letters. "When the mail comes in from Europe next week I expect another avalanche," said Attorney Styles.

Carson died at the sanatorium of a lingering disease. Before the end he told attendants at the hospital that he had lived in a score of States and had married many women. J. R. Harrison, W. M. Brown, Jack Wilson were some of the names under which he lived and married.

After publication that Carson, self-styled mystery man with wives in every port, had confessed portions of his former life, the story, apparently, was espied by all the deserted wives of the United States besides parts of Mexico and the West Indies.

They began writing in. The letters came singly, then in pairs, finally the postoffice began sending them over in neatly tied bundles.

Pink stationery, violet stationery and legal stationery are among that which poured into the office of the attorney here. Some thirty of them claim to be Mrs. K. L. Carson. Others say they were married to a man giving the name of "J. L." or some other Harrison.

If every woman who has written is the wife, legal or otherwise, a new record has been set up in the matrimonial market as the records pertaining to King Solomon are somewhat indistinct. At all events, Carson, if he is given the benefit of the doubt, ran King Sol a hard race, and after all precincts are reported may have a substantial plurality.

Attorney Styles is not disposed to play favorites. There is a possibility, slight though it may now appear, that Carson left an estate. Therefore the attorney has decided to let down the bars.
